2. Carl Marcy, Senate Foreign Relations Committee Staff, visited the Agency for a briefing which was conducted by General Cabell, Mr. Kirkpatrick and John Warner. The Director came in toward the close of the meeting. The briefing lasted for approximately an hour and three quarters and covered the Agency functions touching on each of the individual components. Mr. Marcy was very pleased at having received the invitation and indicated that the briefing was very helpful.

3. Senator Hubert H. Humphrey met with Agency representatives for approximately two hours to discuss his recent trip and talk with Krushchev. Present were: DCI, DDCI, Sherman Kent, Huntington Sheldon, Cord Meyer, Lyman Kirkpatrick, General Truscott, Herbert Scoville, D'Arcy Brent, [redacted] James Critchfield and John Warner. The Senator gave a very interesting briefing [redacted]
